

Online Teaching & Support

SERVICE MISSION OR VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Online Seminary and Institute of Religion classes are designed to provide religious education for youth, young adults, and BYU-Pathway students. Our purpose is to help deepen their conversion to Jesus Christ and His restored gospel, qualify for the blessings of the temple, and prepare themselves, their family, and others for eternal life with their Father in Heaven.

Stake Presidency Member or High Councilor

Please council together to determine if this assignment meets the needs of the individual's time and family situation. After the you feel that they meet the qualifications and are worthy, please set them apart as an Area Online Seminary or Institute Teacher. They will be supervised and trained by the Area Online Learning Leadership.

Seminary and institute teachers assist parents and Church leaders by helping youth and young adults deepen their conversion to Jesus Christ and His gospel. They seek to learn and teach the restored gospel of Jesus Christ by the Holy Ghost. They strive to establish an environment of belonging and purpose and to provide meaningful learning experiences for their students. They participate in training and in-service experiences with the online S&I representative and online supervisors. They help Church leaders invite all potential students to participate in seminary and institute (both online and in-person). They take daily attendance and provide accurate reports for parents, local Church leaders, and S&I records. Please ensure their worthiness as well.

If you do not feel they are able to teach online, there is nothing more you need to do. If they meet the expectations and qualifications please set them apart and send a copy of this registration form to NASouthOnline@ChurchofJesusChrist.org

This form will become obsolete in 2025, as it will be on the Senior Missionary Portal
